

Michigan Government Television

A public affairs initiative of Michigan's cable industry.

111. S. Capitol Ave., 4th Floor, Romney Building
Lansing, MI 48909

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
April 19, 2006

Contact: Bill Trevarthen
(517) 373-4250

MGTV Sponsors Civility in Government Forum with Michigan Center for Civic Ed Michigan's First Gentleman Dan Mulhern Will Moderate Panel Discussion

(Lansing, Michigan)—Michigan Government Television, the Michigan Center for Civic Education, and the Office of the First Gentleman will present a panel discussion on civility in government on Thursday, April 27th, at 6:00 p.m. in The Forum at the Michigan Historical Center in downtown Lansing. The panel discussion is free and open to the public. Other sponsors for the event are Comcast, the Michigan Historical Center, and Rock Financial.

Michigan's First Gentleman Dan Mulhern will moderate the discussion. Panelists are Dennis Archer, Geoffrey Fieger, Senator Valde Garcia, Paul Hillegonds, Lawrence Patrick, Jr., Senator Martha Scott, and Kathleen Wilbur.

Following the forum on civility, guests can meet the panelists at a reception in the Museum at the Michigan Historical Center (at approximately 7:30 p.m.). Tickets for the reception are $50.00 each and proceeds from the reception will benefit the non-profit Michigan Center for Civic Education. Please contact the Michigan Center at 248-209-2325 to order tickets.

“This should be a rousing discussion,” said MGTV Executive Director Bill Trevarthen, who serves on the Michigan Center for Civic Ed's board of directors and is chair of the event. “We have pulled together an accomplished and lively group of panelists.”

The audience will have the opportunity to join the discussion during a question and answer period.

Michigan Government Television, a non-profit 501 (c) 3 corporation, is a public affairs initiative of Michigan's cable television industry.